SICHUAN RED BEAUTY RADISH

A traditional red radish from the Sichuan region of China. Fully red from skin to heart, it makes beautiful red pickles. The Sichuan region of China is famous for its cuisine; pickles are a cornerstone of its culinary profile. Expect a bit of variation in this variety; some roots will produce white centers.

PLANTING INSTRUCTIONS

Plant in late summer for harvest after the weather begins to cool. Can be lifted and stored in very cool (33F), humid conditions, where they will keep for weeks.
