(Zinnia elegans)

GANDY CANE MIX ZINNIA

These large double-petaled zinnias are also known as peppermint sticks. A delightful blend of pink, red, white and yellow, each petal splattered with contrasting color, they are a standout in the garden and were quite fashionable in the mid 20th century.

PLANTING INSTRUCTIONS

Direct-sow soon after last spring frost. Requires full sun, rich soil, and moderate moisture to attain perfection. Cut frequently or remove spent flowers for highest production.
