PIPPIN'S GOLDEN HONEY PEPPER

Multicolored, sweet pepper, a beloved heirloom of the Philadelphia African American community of the early 1900s. A delightfully ornamental pepper that changes color, and finally ripens to a vibrant orange. Philadelphia folk artist Horrace Pippin shared this seeds with William Woys Weaver's grandfather.

PLANTING INSTRUCTIONS

Start indoors in bright light 8-12 weeks before last frost date. Heat mat helps to warm soil and speed germination. Peppers often appreciate a bit of afternoon shade during the hottest summer weather.
